

NOTE: To access the interactive functions of this PDF, please make sure you have downloaded the free version of Adobe Acrobat Reader here: <https://get.adobe.com/reader/>

Practice Test 6

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

AP[®] United States History Exam

SECTION I, PART A: Multiple Choice

At a Glance

Time

55 minutes

Number of Questions

55

Percent of Total Score

40%

DISCLAIMER: The official AP U.S. History Exam will be digital. Instructions for the digital exam may differ from this practice test.

Instructions

Section I, Part A has 55 multiple-choice questions and lasts 55 minutes.

Each question in this part is followed by four suggested answers. Select the best answer to each question.

Indicate all of your answers to the multiple-choice questions on the answer sheet. Give only one answer to each question.

Use your time effectively, working as quickly as you can without losing accuracy. Do not spend too much time on any one question. Go on to other questions and come back to the ones you have not answered if you have time.

Your total score on the multiple-choice section is based only on the number of questions answered correctly. Points are not deducted for incorrect answers or unanswered questions.

BACK

NEXT

Questions 1 through 3 refer to the following

“I long to hear that you have declared an independency—and by the way in the new Code of Laws which I suppose it will be necessary for you to make I desire you would Remember the Ladies, and be more generous and favorable to them than your ancestors. Do not put such unlimited power into the hands of the Husbands. Remember all Men would be tyrants if they could. If particular care and attention is not paid to the Ladies we are determined to foment a Rebellion, and will not hold ourselves bound by any Laws in which we have no voice, or Representation.”

Source: Abigail Adams, Letter to John Adams, 1776

1

Mark for Review

This passage best reflects which of the following historical situations?

(A) The political battle to codify gender equality in America's Constitution.

(B) The increased number of women gaining access to higher education.

(C) The movement for the right of suffrage for American women.

(D) The influence of Enlightenment principles in appeals for women's expanded roles in revolutionary America.

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 1 through 3 refer to the following

“I long to hear that you have declared an independency—and by the way in the new Code of Laws which I suppose it will be necessary for you to make I desire you would Remember the Ladies, and be more generous and favorable to them than your ancestors. Do not put such unlimited power into the hands of the Husbands. Remember all Men would be tyrants if they could. If particular care and attention is not paid to the Ladies we are determined to foment a Rebellion, and will not hold ourselves bound by any Laws in which we have no voice, or Representation.”

Source: Abigail Adams, Letter to John Adams, 1776

2

Mark for Review

Ideas such as those expressed in the excerpt had the strongest effect on which of the following in the wake of the American revolution?

(A) Women became more likely to lead church communities and places of worship.

(B) Women’s political roles diminished after the revolutionary war as more of them returned to their roles as wives and mothers.

(C) Women came to be expected to teach republican values within the family.

(D) Women more commonly entered the workplace to fill in for husbands who had been drafted to fight the war.

BACK

NEXT

Questions 1 through 3 refer to the following

“I long to hear that you have declared an independency—and by the way in the new Code of Laws which I suppose it will be necessary for you to make I desire you would Remember the Ladies, and be more generous and favorable to them than your ancestors. Do not put such unlimited power into the hands of the Husbands. Remember all Men would be tyrants if they could. If particular care and attention is not paid to the Ladies we are determined to foment a Rebellion, and will not hold ourselves bound by any Laws in which we have no voice, or Representation.”

Source: Abigail Adams, Letter to John Adams, 1776

3

Mark for Review

When Abigail Adams notes that she hopes her husband would “be more generous and favorable to them than your ancestors,” she is most directly referring to

(A) the historical subjugation of women

(B) the loss of rights that women in the colonies experienced

(C) the high regard her husband’s ancestors placed upon women

(D) the hope that the revolution will include women in the militias

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 4 through 5 refer to the following.

Article II

In the cession made by the preceeding article are included the adjacent Islands belonging to Louisiana all public lots and Squares, vacant lands and all public buildings, fortifications, barracks and other edifices which are not private property.—The Archives, papers & documents relative to the domain and Sovereignty of Louisiana and its dependances will be left in the possession of the Commissaries of the United States, and copies will be afterwards given in due form to the Magistrates and Municipal officers of such of the said papers and documents as may be necessary to them.

Article III

The inhabitants of the ceded territory shall be incorporated in the Union of the United States and admitted as soon as possible according to the principles of the federal Constitution to the enjoyment of all these rights, advantages and immunities of citizens of the United States, and in the mean time they shall be maintained and protected in the free enjoyment of their liberty, property and the Religion which they profess.

Source: Treaty between the United States of America and the French Republic, 1803

4

Mark for Review

The process described in Article III of the excerpt demonstrates the strongest continuity with which of the following from 1754 to 1800?

(A) The passage of the Northwest Ordinance.

(B) The ratification of the Bill of Rights.

(C) The enshrining of federalism into the United States Constitution.

(D) The imposition of the Proclamation Line of 1763.

BACK

NEXT

Questions 4 through 5 refer to the following.

Article II

In the cession made by the preceeding article are included the adjacent Islands belonging to Louisiana all public lots and Squares, vacant lands and all public buildings, fortifications, barracks and other edifices which are not private property.—The Archives, papers & documents relative to the domain and Sovereignty of Louisiana and its dependances will be left in the possession of the Commissaries of the United States, and copies will be afterwards given in due form to the Magistrates and Municipal officers of such of the said papers and documents as may be necessary to them.

Article III

The inhabitants of the ceded territory shall be incorporated in the Union of the United States and admitted as soon as possible according to the principles of the federal Constitution to the enjoyment of all these rights, advantages and immunities of citizens of the United States, and in the mean time they shall be maintained and protected in the free enjoyment of their liberty, property and the Religion which they profess.

Source: Treaty between the United States of America and the French Republic, 1803

5

Mark for Review

Which of the following groups would be most likely to oppose the policy referenced in the treaty?

(A) Southern plantation owners

(B) Inland frontier settlers

(C) New England Federalists

(D) Chesapeake Jeffersonian Republicans

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 6 through 9 refer to the following.

1824 Presidential Election Results

Presidential Nominee	State	Political Party	Electoral College Votes	Popular Vote
John Quincy Adams	MA	Democratic-Republican	84	113,122
Andrew Jackson	TN	Democratic-Republican	99	151,271
William H. Crawford	GA	Democratic-Republican	41	40,856
Henry Clay	KY	Democratic-Republican	37	47,531

6

Mark for Review

The table supports which of the following conclusions about the 1824 presidential election?

☐

(A) Not a single candidate earned a plurality of votes.

☐

(B) Henry Clay was the least popular of the candidates.

☐

(C) None of the candidates secured the necessary majority of electoral votes to claim victory.

☐

(D) Andrew Jackson won the presidency.

BACK

NEXT

Questions 6 through 9 refer to the following.

1824 Presidential Election Results

Presidential Nominee	State	Political Party	Electoral College Votes	Popular Vote
John Quincy Adams	MA	Democratic-Republican	84	113,122
Andrew Jackson	TN	Democratic-Republican	99	151,271
William H. Crawford	GA	Democratic-Republican	41	40,856
Henry Clay	KY	Democratic-Republican	37	47,531

7

Mark for Review

The relative distribution of the popular vote totals likely reflects which of the following?

(A) Larger numbers of migrants moving to industrializing Northern cities

(B) The expansion of suffrage to non-property owning white men

(C) Increased sectional divisions in American politics

(D) Disagreement over enforcement of the Monroe doctrine

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 6 through 9 refer to the following.

1824 Presidential Election Results

Presidential Nominee	State	Political Party	Electoral College Votes	Popular Vote
John Quincy Adams	MA	Democratic-Republican	84	113,122
Andrew Jackson	TN	Democratic-Republican	99	151,271
William H. Crawford	GA	Democratic-Republican	41	40,856
Henry Clay	KY	Democratic-Republican	37	47,531

8

Mark for Review

Which of the following developments emerged most directly in response to the outcome of this election?

☐

(A) The creation of a new American political party system

☐

(B) A wave of Protestant religious revivalism

☐

(C) Bipartisan support of federal legislation supporting internal improvements

☐

(D) Stricter federal restrictions on westward expansion

BACK

NEXT

Questions 6 through 9 refer to the following.

1824 Presidential Election Results

Presidential Nominee	State	Political Party	Electoral College Votes	Popular Vote
John Quincy Adams	MA	Democratic-Republican	84	113,122
Andrew Jackson	TN	Democratic-Republican	99	151,271
William H. Crawford	GA	Democratic-Republican	41	40,856
Henry Clay	KY	Democratic-Republican	37	47,531

9

Mark for Review

Which of the following was a key difference between the top two vote earners?

(A) Adams represented an agricultural region of the United States while Jackson campaigned on urban interests.

(B) Adams advocated low tariffs while Jackson was interested in expanding the use of tariffs.

(C) Adams supported a stronger federal government while Jackson advocated for more states' rights.

(D) Adams pushed for a "hard money" policy while Jackson ensured that the Second National Bank would continue.

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 10 through 12 refer to the following.

Source 1

“The People of the State of Illinois to all Constables, Sheriffs and Coroners of State, Greeting:

Whereas complaint hath been made before me, one of the justices of the peace within and for the county of Hancock aforesaid, upon the oath of Francis M. Higbee of said county, that Joseph Smith, [et. al.], of said county did on the 10th day of June instant commit a riot at and within the county aforesaid, wherein they, with force and violence broke into the office of the Nauvoo Expositor, and unlawfully and with force burned and destroyed the printing press, type and fixtures of the same, being the property of William Law.”

Source: Warrant for the Arrest of Joseph Smith, 1844

Source 2

“But perhaps the greatest attraction of Mormonism was the promise that each follower would be granted an extraordinarily intimate relationship with God. Joseph [Smith] taught and encouraged his adherents to receive personal communiqués straight from the Lord. Divine revelation formed the bedrock of the religion.”

Source: Jon Krakauer, Under the Banner of Heaven: A Story of Violent Faith, (c) 2004, Anchor Books, a Division of Penguin Random House

10

 Mark for Review

Religious movements such as the one described in the passages were facilitated by which of the following in the early 1800s?

- ☐

(A) A rejection of individualism
- ☐

(B) A resistance to social reforms
- ☐

(C) Greater social and geographical mobility
- ☐

(D) An embracing of rationalism

Questions 10 through 12 refer to the following.

Source 1

“The People of the State of Illinois to all Constables, Sheriffs and Coroners of State, Greeting:

Whereas complaint hath been made before me, one of the justices of the peace within and for the county of Hancock aforesaid, upon the oath of Francis M. Higbee of said county, that Joseph Smith, [et. al.], of said county did on the 10th day of June instant commit a riot at and within the county aforesaid, wherein they, with force and violence broke into the office of the Nauvoo Expositor, and unlawfully and with force burned and destroyed the printing press, type and fixtures of the same, being the property of William Law.”

Source: Warrant for the Arrest of Joseph Smith, 1844

Source 2

“But perhaps the greatest attraction of Mormonism was the promise that each follower would be granted an extraordinarily intimate relationship with God. Joseph [Smith] taught and encouraged his adherents to receive personal communiqués straight from the Lord. Divine revelation formed the bedrock of the religion.”

Source: Jon Krakauer, Under the Banner of Heaven: A Story of Violent Faith, (c) 2004, Anchor Books, a Division of Penguin Random House

11

Mark for Review

Supporters of the religion referenced in the sources would most likely have been drawn from which of the following groups in the early 1800s?

(A) lapsed Catholics from large Eastern cities

(B) Protestants from Western New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio

(C) well-educated atheists from academia

(D) Massachusetts Puritans seeking freedom from a tyrannical church

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 10 through 12 refer to the following.

Source 1

“The People of the State of Illinois to all Constables, Sheriffs and Coroners of State, Greeting:

Whereas complaint hath been made before me, one of the justices of the peace within and for the county of Hancock aforesaid, upon the oath of Francis M. Higbee of said county, that Joseph Smith, [et. al.], of said county did on the 10th day of June instant commit a riot at and within the county aforesaid, wherein they, with force and violence broke into the office of the Nauvoo Expositor, and unlawfully and with force burned and destroyed the printing press, type and fixtures of the same, being the property of William Law.”

Source: Warrant for the Arrest of Joseph Smith, 1844

Source 2

“But perhaps the greatest attraction of Mormonism was the promise that each follower would be granted an extraordinarily intimate relationship with God. Joseph [Smith] taught and encouraged his adherents to receive personal communiqués straight from the Lord. Divine revelation formed the bedrock of the religion.”

Source: Jon Krakauer, Under the Banner of Heaven: A Story of Violent Faith, (c) 2004, Anchor Books, a Division of Penguin Random House

12  Mark for Review

Historical developments such as the one referenced in the first source most directly led to which of the following?

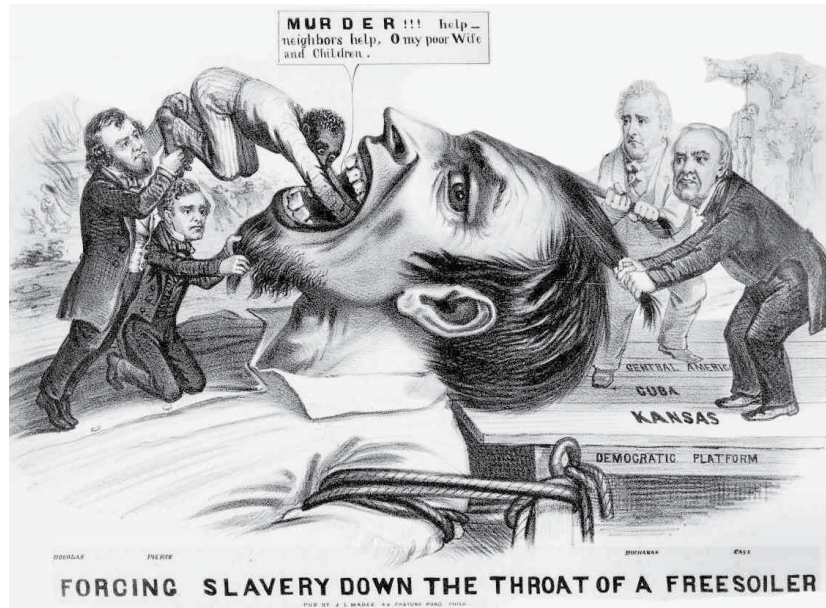

- ☐ (A) Armed conflict between competing political factions over the creation of territorial governments
- ☐ (B) Increasing interest in overseas territorial acquisition for the purpose of spreading Christianity
- ☐ (C) Increased migration to and settlement in the West
- ☐ (D) The notion of a divine mission for the United States to expand to the Pacific

BACK

NEXT

Questions 13 through 15 refer to the following.

1856 illustration

13

Mark for Review

Supporters of the point of view expressed in the cartoon would likely argue that slavery

☐

(A) Was a positive good and protected by the Constitution

☐

(B) Was morally incorrect and required immediate abolition

☐

(C) Undermined the free labor market by forcing white workers to unfairly compete for jobs

☐

(D) Should be eliminated through a process of gradual emancipation and repatriation to Africa

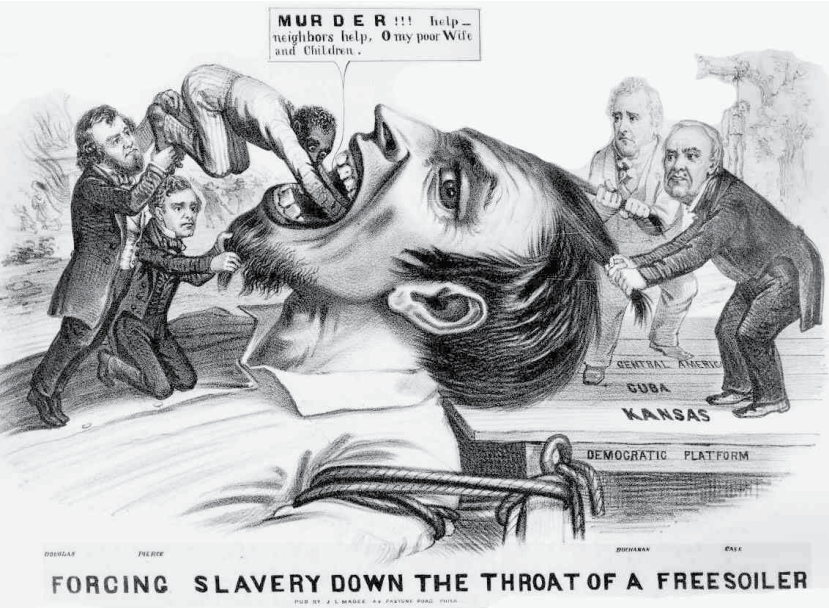

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 13 through 15 refer to the following.

1856 illustration

14 Mark for Review

The image was most likely created in response to which of the following legal developments?

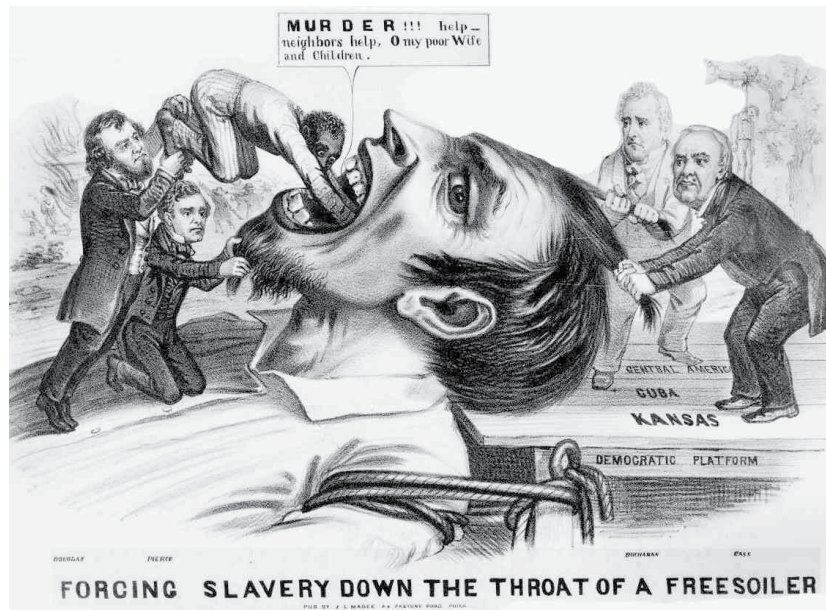

- ☐ (A) The passage of the Compromise of 1850.
- ☐ (B) The creation of the Kansas Nebraska Act.
- ☐ (C) The Supreme Court decision in Dred Scott v. Sanford.
- ☐ (D) The election of Abraham Lincoln to the presidency.

BACK

NEXT

Questions 13 through 15 refer to the following.

1856 illustration

15

Mark for Review

The political strategy of those in support of the point of view expressed in the cartoon is most similar to which of the following American foreign policies after 1900?

☐

(A) The creation of the League of Nations after World War I

☐

(B) The American policy of Containment directed toward the Soviet Union

☐

(C) Reductions in tensions with rival nations through arms control treaties

☐

(D) Aggressive military action to deter the threat of terrorism

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 16 through 18 refer to the following.

Westward the Course of Empire Takes Its Way, Emanuel Leutze, 1861

16  Mark for Review

The federal government supported the type of activity portrayed in the painting during the period 1860 to 1898 in all of the following ways EXCEPT

- ☐ (A) Confining American Indians to reservations and denying tribal sovereignty
- ☐ (B) Subsidizing Western settlement through federal land grants
- ☐ (C) Negotiating treaties with European powers for greater access to Western lands
- ☐ (D) Promoting economic growth through supporting transportation and communication systems

BACK

NEXT

Questions 16 through 18 refer to the following.

Westward the Course of Empire Takes Its Way, Emanuel Leutze, 1861

17

Mark for Review

Processes such as the one depicted in the painting would lead to the greatest political disagreement over which of the following in the period 1844 to 1877?

☐

(A) The presence of international migrants arriving from Europe and Asia to the United States.

☐

(B) The use of tariffs to protect American industry.

☐

(C) The expansion of the political franchise to include non-landowners

☐

(D) The legality of slavery in newly acquired territories.

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 16 through 18 refer to the following.

Westward the Course of Empire Takes Its Way, Emanuel Leutze, 1861

18  Mark for Review

A supporter of the process depicted in the painting would most likely support which of the following political parties from 1800 to 1848?

☐

(A) The Federalist Party

☐

(B) The Democratic Party

☐

(C) The Whig Party

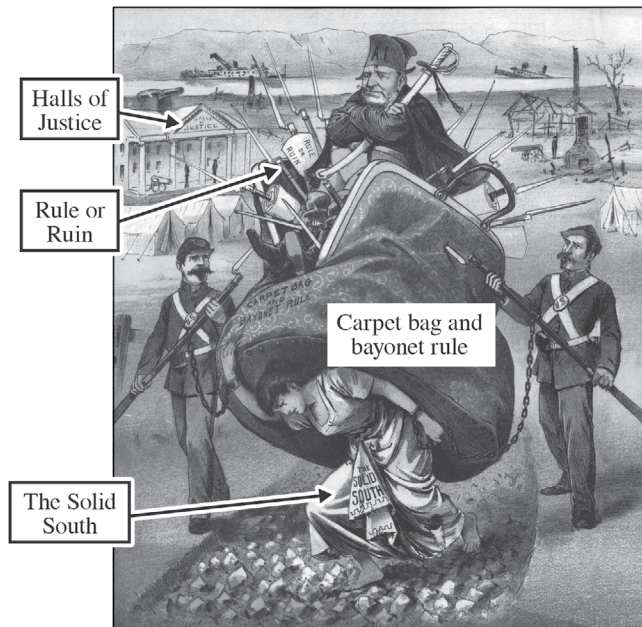

☐

(D) The Republican Party

BACK

NEXT

Questions 19 through 21 refer to the following.

Puck Magazine, 1872

19 Mark for Review

Which of the following most accurately interprets the meaning of the political cartoon?

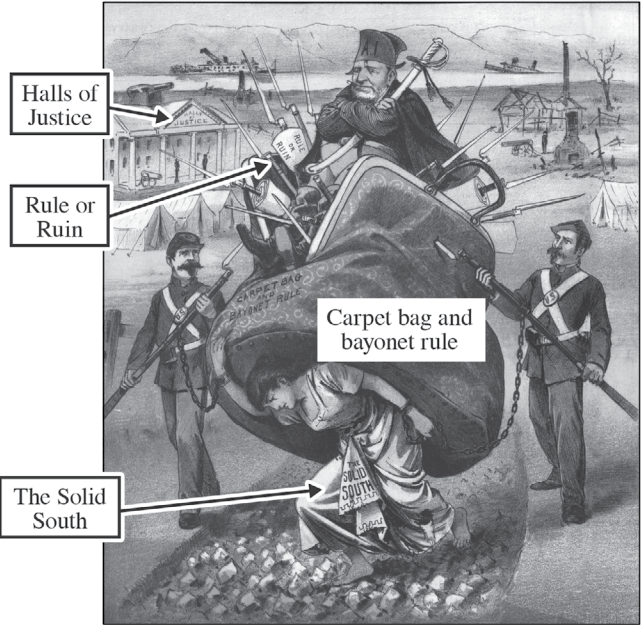

- ☐ (A) The president was planning to lead an armed invasion of the South.
- ☐ (B) Southern states were being unfairly forced to pay back the costs of the Civil War to the Union.
- ☐ (C) The United States government's Reconstruction policies were burdensome to Southerners.
- ☐ (D) The union army was planning to confiscate weapons from Southerners.

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 19 through 21 refer to the following.

Puck Magazine, 1872

20 Mark for Review

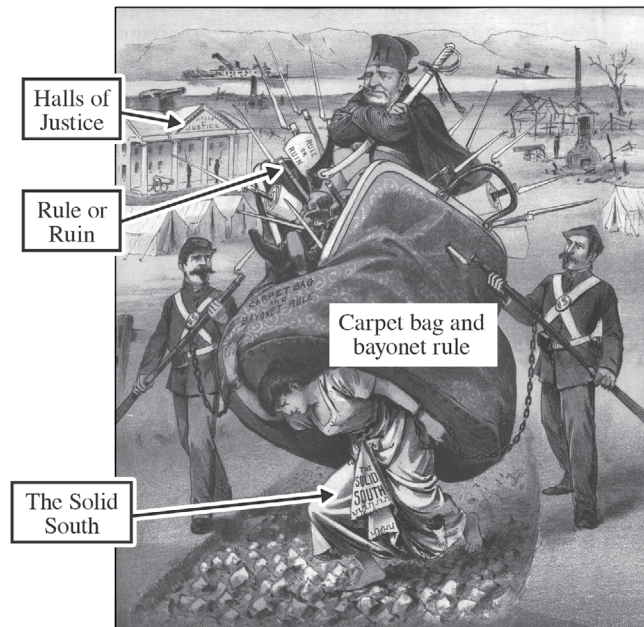

Which of the following legislative acts paved the way for the event depicted in the illustration?

- ☐ (A) The Freedmen’s Bureau Bill, giving assistance to freed slaves in the Reconstruction South.
- ☐ (B) The Morrill Act, offering land grants for the establishment of agricultural colleges.
- ☐ (C) The Reconstruction Act, dividing the South into military districts.
- ☐ (D) The Enforcement Act, protecting the rights of African Americans to vote and receive equal protection.

BACK

NEXT

Questions 19 through 21 refer to the following.

Puck Magazine, 1872

21

Mark for Review

Supporters of President Grant would respond to the artist of this cartoon by noting which of the following?

☐

(A) The protection of the rights of freedmen is necessary for a successful Reconstruction.

☐

(B) Southern Democrats should share equally in the process of Reconstruction.

☐

(C) The former Confederate states are responsible for their own rebuilding.

☐

(D) Military Reconstruction is unconstitutional.

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 22 through 24 refer to the following.

“We meet in the midst of a nation brought to the verge of moral, political, and material ruin. Corruption dominates the ballot-box, the Legislatures, the Congress.... The people are demoralized; The newspapers are largely subsidized or muzzled, public opinion silenced, business prostrated, homes covered with mortgages, labor impoverished.... The fruits of the toil of millions are badly stolen to build up colossal fortunes for a few, unprecedented in the history of mankind; and the possessors of these, in turn, despise the Republic and endanger liberty. From the same prolific womb of governmental injustice we breed the two great classes—tramps and millionaires.”

Source: Ignatius Donnelly, Farmer’s Alliance Convention, February 1892

22

Mark for Review

Members of the speaker’s audience organized most directly in response to

☐

(A) Concerns over abuses of the environment and soil erosion

☐

(B) The growth of industrial power in agriculture and unstable economic conditions for farmers

☐

(C) The reduction of wages and lack of labor protections for industrial workers

☐

(D) Reform movements inspired by the Second Great Awakening

BACK

NEXT

Questions 22 through 24 refer to the following.

“We meet in the midst of a nation brought to the verge of moral, political, and material ruin. Corruption dominates the ballot-box, the Legislatures, the Congress.... The people are demoralized; The newspapers are largely subsidized or muzzled, public opinion silenced, business prostrated, homes covered with mortgages, labor impoverished.... The fruits of the toil of millions are badly stolen to build up colossal fortunes for a few, unprecedented in the history of mankind; and the possessors of these, in turn, despise the Republic and endanger liberty. From the same prolific womb of governmental injustice we breed the two great classes—tramps and millionaires.”

Source: Ignatius Donnelly, Farmer’s Alliance Convention, February 1892

23

Mark for Review

Those aligned with Donnelly’s political views would have been most organized to promote legislation to stop which of the following practices?

(A) Price gouging in the railroad industry

(B) The Black Codes of the Reconstruction Era

(C) Radical demonstrations by labor unions

(D) The trustbusting of the Progressive Movement

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 22 through 24 refer to the following.

“We meet in the midst of a nation brought to the verge of moral, political, and material ruin. Corruption dominates the ballot-box, the Legislatures, the Congress.... The people are demoralized; The newspapers are largely subsidized or muzzled, public opinion silenced, business prostrated, homes covered with mortgages, labor impoverished.... The fruits of the toil of millions are badly stolen to build up colossal fortunes for a few, unprecedented in the history of mankind; and the possessors of these, in turn, despise the Republic and endanger liberty. From the same prolific womb of governmental injustice we breed the two great classes—tramps and millionaires.”

Source: Ignatius Donnelly, Farmer’s Alliance Convention, February 1892

24

Mark for Review

Which of the following could best be used to modify the claim made by the author in the excerpt?

☐

(A) In the late 1800s, global crop prices declined significantly

☐

(B) Early federal laws to combat the influence of organized business were often used against labor unions instead

☐

(C) Wealthy individuals promoted philanthropy as a means of re-investing their wealth into their communities

☐

(D) Railroad companies benefited from enormous government subsidies

BACK

NEXT

Questions 25 through 28 refer to the following.

“As to conditions in South Carolina, Mr. Hine states his opinion thus: ‘In general, I found these were considerably worse than conditions in North Carolina, both as to the age and number of small children employed, though several of the mill towns in North Carolina approached the worst ones in South Carolina....In Chester, South Carolina, an overseer told me frankly that manufacturers all over the South evaded the child labor law by letting youngsters who are under age help older brothers and sisters. The names of the younger ones do not appear on the company books and the pay goes to the older child who is above twelve.’”

Source: Rev. A. E. Seddon, et.al., “Account of Investigations Made in the Cotton Mills of North and South Carolina,” 1909

25

Mark for Review

The situation presented in the passage was primarily driven by

☐

(A) strict labor laws

☐

(B) the demands of an agricultural economy

☐

(C) loose enforcement of the Supreme Court’s ruling

☐

(D) the increased work opportunities presented by the Industrial Revolution

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 25 through 28 refer to the following.

“As to conditions in South Carolina, Mr. Hine states his opinion thus: ‘In general, I found these were considerably worse than conditions in North Carolina, both as to the age and number of small children employed, though several of the mill towns in North Carolina approached the worst ones in South Carolina....In Chester, South Carolina, an overseer told me frankly that manufacturers all over the South evaded the child labor law by letting youngsters who are under age help older brothers and sisters. The names of the younger ones do not appear on the company books and the pay goes to the older child who is above twelve.’”

Source: Rev. A. E. Seddon, et.al., “Account of Investigations Made in the Cotton Mills of North and South Carolina,” 1909

26  Mark for Review

The source would be most useful for a historian studying which of the following?

- ☐ (A) The industrialization of some segments of the Southern economy in the wake of the Civil War.
- ☐ (B) The use of investigative journalism to expose poor working conditions in factory labor.
- ☐ (C) Increasing disparities between the rich and poor during the Industrial Revolution.
- ☐ (D) Tactics that workers used in their battle against management over wages and working conditions.

BACK

NEXT

Questions 25 through 28 refer to the following.

“As to conditions in South Carolina, Mr. Hine states his opinion thus: ‘In general, I found these were considerably worse than conditions in North Carolina, both as to the age and number of small children employed, though several of the mill towns in North Carolina approached the worst ones in South Carolina....In Chester, South Carolina, an overseer told me frankly that manufacturers all over the South evaded the child labor law by letting youngsters who are under age help older brothers and sisters. The names of the younger ones do not appear on the company books and the pay goes to the older child who is above twelve.’”

Source: Rev. A. E. Seddon, et.al., “Account of Investigations Made in the Cotton Mills of North and South Carolina,” 1909

27

Mark for Review

Efforts to reform the conditions described in the passage are most similar to reform movements in which of the following periods?

(A) The First Great Awakening in the early 1700s.

(B) The Revolutionary era in the late 1700s.

(C) The Second Great Awakening in the early 1800s.

(D) The Reagan Revolution in the late 1900s.

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 25 through 28 refer to the following.

“As to conditions in South Carolina, Mr. Hine states his opinion thus: ‘In general, I found these were considerably worse than conditions in North Carolina, both as to the age and number of small children employed, though several of the mill towns in North Carolina approached the worst ones in South Carolina....In Chester, South Carolina, an overseer told me frankly that manufacturers all over the South evaded the child labor law by letting youngsters who are under age help older brothers and sisters. The names of the younger ones do not appear on the company books and the pay goes to the older child who is above twelve.’”

Source: Rev. A. E. Seddon, et.al., “Account of Investigations Made in the Cotton Mills of North and South Carolina,” 1909

28  Mark for Review

Which of the following actions contributed the most to reducing the circumstances faced by the children described in this excerpt?

- ☐ Ⓐ Widespread campaigns spearheaded by the captains of industry
- ☐ Ⓑ Executive orders from the McKinley administration
- ☐ Ⓒ Supreme Court decisions of the 1880s and 1890s
- ☐ Ⓓ Legislative successes at the state and local level during the Progressive movement

BACK

NEXT

Questions 29 through 32 refer to the following.

Source 1

“The American people can not use a dishonest medium of exchange; it is ours to set the world its example of right and honor. We can not fly from our world duties; it is ours to execute the purpose of a fate that has driven us to be greater than our small intentions. We can not retreat from any soil where Providence has unfurled our banner; it is ours to save that soil for liberty and civilization.”

Source: Senator Albert Beveridge, “The March of the Flag,” 1898

Source 2

“We hold that the policy known as imperialism is hostile to liberty and tends toward militarism, an evil from which it has been our glory to be free. We regret that it has become necessary in the land of Washington and Lincoln to reaffirm that all men, of whatever race or color, are entitled to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We maintain that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. We insist that the subjugation of any people is ‘criminal aggression’ and open disloyalty to the distinctive principles of our Government.”

Source: American Anti-Imperialist League Platform, 1899

29

Mark for Review

Which of the following would supporters of Beveridge assert about the United States as an “example of right and honor”?

(A) Intervention in the Spanish colony of Cuba

(B) Exploitation of the sugar crop in Hawaii

(C) The purchase of Alaska

(D) The Open Door Policy in China

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 29 through 32 refer to the following.

Source 1

“The American people can not use a dishonest medium of exchange; it is ours to set the world its example of right and honor. We can not fly from our world duties; it is ours to execute the purpose of a fate that has driven us to be greater than our small intentions. We can not retreat from any soil where Providence has unfurled our banner; it is ours to save that soil for liberty and civilization.”

Source: Senator Albert Beveridge, “The March of the Flag,” 1898

Source 2

“We hold that the policy known as imperialism is hostile to liberty and tends toward militarism, an evil from which it has been our glory to be free. We regret that it has become necessary in the land of Washington and Lincoln to reaffirm that all men, of whatever race or color, are entitled to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We maintain that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. We insist that the subjugation of any people is ‘criminal aggression’ and open disloyalty to the distinctive principles of our Government.”

Source: American Anti-Imperialist League Platform, 1899

30

Mark for Review

Which of the following best characterizes the claim of the second source about imperialism?

(A) The government lacks sufficient power under the Constitution to colonize foreign lands.

(B) The military expense required to maintain an overseas empire is not worth the cost.

(C) Profiting from the natural resources of a foreign people is unjust.

(D) Colonial conquest denies people rights that are core to American identity.

BACK

NEXT

Questions 29 through 32 refer to the following.

Source 1

“The American people can not use a dishonest medium of exchange; it is ours to set the world its example of right and honor. We can not fly from our world duties; it is ours to execute the purpose of a fate that has driven us to be greater than our small intentions. We can not retreat from any soil where Providence has unfurled our banner; it is ours to save that soil for liberty and civilization.”

Source: Senator Albert Beveridge, “The March of the Flag,” 1898

Source 2

“We hold that the policy known as imperialism is hostile to liberty and tends toward militarism, an evil from which it has been our glory to be free. We regret that it has become necessary in the land of Washington and Lincoln to reaffirm that all men, of whatever race or color, are entitled to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We maintain that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. We insist that the subjugation of any people is ‘criminal aggression’ and open disloyalty to the distinctive principles of our Government.”

Source: American Anti-Imperialist League Platform, 1899

31

Mark for Review

Based on the excerpt, Beveridge would have most likely opposed which of the following?

(A) Movements to advocate for the independence of the Philippines

(B) Programs to reform American Indian policy through forced assimilation

(C) Stricter limits on immigration into the United States

(D) The doctrine of survival of the fittest as applied to society

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 29 through 32 refer to the following.

Source 1

“The American people can not use a dishonest medium of exchange; it is ours to set the world its example of right and honor. We can not fly from our world duties; it is ours to execute the purpose of a fate that has driven us to be greater than our small intentions. We can not retreat from any soil where Providence has unfurled our banner; it is ours to save that soil for liberty and civilization.”

Source: Senator Albert Beveridge, “The March of the Flag,” 1898

Source 2

“We hold that the policy known as imperialism is hostile to liberty and tends toward militarism, an evil from which it has been our glory to be free. We regret that it has become necessary in the land of Washington and Lincoln to reaffirm that all men, of whatever race or color, are entitled to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We maintain that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. We insist that the subjugation of any people is ‘criminal aggression’ and open disloyalty to the distinctive principles of our Government.”

Source: American Anti-Imperialist League Platform, 1899

32

Mark for Review

In asserting that “we can not retreat from any soil where Providence has unfurled our banner,” Albert Beveridge argues that

(A) the United States has a moral obligation to take care of the people in its colonies

(B) American expansion must increase at any cost

(C) military commitments have become so entrenched in the colonies that the United States cannot leave

(D) anti-imperialist groups lack patriotism

BACK

NEXT

Questions 33 through 35 refer to the following.

“Both of these men, Mr. Hoover and Mr. Roosevelt, came out and said there had to be a decentralization of wealth, but neither one of them did anything about it. But, nevertheless, they recognized the principle. The fact that neither one of them ever did anything about it is their own problem that I am not undertaking to criticize; but had Mr. Hoover carried out what he says ought to be done, he would be retiring from the President’s office, very probably, 3 years from now, instead of 1 year ago; and had Mr. Roosevelt proceeded along the lines that he stated were necessary for the decentralization of wealth, he would have gone, my friends, a long way already, and within a few months he would have probably reached a solution of all of the problems that afflict this country.”

Source: Senator Huey Long, radio address, 1934

33

Mark for Review

Which of the following issues of the period was Long most likely concerned with in the excerpt?

(A) The challenges President Roosevelt will face in his reelection campaign

(B) The economic downturn experienced by business leaders

(C) The disparity between the wealthy and the poor

(D) The legacy of President Hoover

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 33 through 35 refer to the following.

“Both of these men, Mr. Hoover and Mr. Roosevelt, came out and said there had to be a decentralization of wealth, but neither one of them did anything about it. But, nevertheless, they recognized the principle. The fact that neither one of them ever did anything about it is their own problem that I am not undertaking to criticize; but had Mr. Hoover carried out what he says ought to be done, he would be retiring from the President’s office, very probably, 3 years from now, instead of 1 year ago; and had Mr. Roosevelt proceeded along the lines that he stated were necessary for the decentralization of wealth, he would have gone, my friends, a long way already, and within a few months he would have probably reached a solution of all of the problems that afflict this country.”

Source: Senator Huey Long, radio address, 1934

34  Mark for Review

Based on the excerpt, the author would most likely endorse which of the following as a means to address the problems described?

- ☐ (A) Implementing policies to protect America’s banking system
- ☐ (B) Ending Prohibition
- ☐ (C) Incentivizing businesses to hire more workers
- ☐ (D) Imposing higher taxes on wealthier Americans to benefit programs that aid the working class

BACK

NEXT

Questions 33 through 35 refer to the following.

“Both of these men, Mr. Hoover and Mr. Roosevelt, came out and said there had to be a decentralization of wealth, but neither one of them did anything about it. But, nevertheless, they recognized the principle. The fact that neither one of them ever did anything about it is their own problem that I am not undertaking to criticize; but had Mr. Hoover carried out what he says ought to be done, he would be retiring from the President’s office, very probably, 3 years from now, instead of 1 year ago; and had Mr. Roosevelt proceeded along the lines that he stated were necessary for the decentralization of wealth, he would have gone, my friends, a long way already, and within a few months he would have probably reached a solution of all of the problems that afflict this country.”

Source: Senator Huey Long, radio address, 1934

35

Mark for Review

The ideas of Huey Long, as expressed in the excerpt, had the most in common with the ideas of the

☐(A) Federalists of the 1790s☐(B) Whigs of the 1840s☐(C) Know-Nothings of the 1850s☐(D) Populists of the 1890sBACK*NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 36 through 39 refer to the following.

“...Russian rulers have invariably sensed that their rule was relatively archaic in form, fragile and artificial in its psychological foundation, unable to stand comparison or contact with political systems of Western countries. For this reason they have always feared foreign penetration, feared direct contact between Western world and their own, feared what would happen if Russians learned truth about world without or if foreigners learned truth about world within. And they have learned to seek security only in patient but deadly struggle for total destruction of rival power, never in compacts and compromises with it.”

Source: George Kennan, Telegram to the State Department, 1946

36  Mark for Review

Kennan’s message in the excerpt most directly reflected which of the following developments of the mid-twentieth century?

- ☐ Ⓐ A prolonged period of recession
- ☐ Ⓑ The United States’ participation in proxy wars around the world
- ☐ Ⓒ The baby boom
- ☐ Ⓓ A Truman-endorsed doctrine of neutrality

BACK

NEXT

Questions 36 through 39 refer to the following.

“...Russian rulers have invariably sensed that their rule was relatively archaic in form, fragile and artificial in its psychological foundation, unable to stand comparison or contact with political systems of Western countries. For this reason they have always feared foreign penetration, feared direct contact between Western world and their own, feared what would happen if Russians learned truth about world without or if foreigners learned truth about world within. And they have learned to seek security only in patient but deadly struggle for total destruction of rival power, never in compacts and compromises with it.”

Source: George Kennan, Telegram to the State Department, 1946

37

Mark for Review

The ideas of the document are most reflected in United States policy after 1945 through which of the following?

(A) The United States joining the United Nations.

(B) American support for space research and efforts to land on the moon.

(C) Efforts to root out alleged communist influence from the federal government.

(D) Aid money for countries such as Greece and Turkey to resist internal communist groups.

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 36 through 39 refer to the following.

“...Russian rulers have invariably sensed that their rule was relatively archaic in form, fragile and artificial in its psychological foundation, unable to stand comparison or contact with political systems of Western countries. For this reason they have always feared foreign penetration, feared direct contact between Western world and their own, feared what would happen if Russians learned truth about world without or if foreigners learned truth about world within. And they have learned to seek security only in patient but deadly struggle for total destruction of rival power, never in compacts and compromises with it.”

Source: George Kennan, Telegram to the State Department, 1946

38  Mark for Review

The telegram most directly advocates a United States foreign policy that emphasizes

- ☐ (A) continued peace talks with the Soviet Union
- ☐ (B) preventing the spread of Communism beyond where it already was practiced
- ☐ (C) increased trade partnerships with Soviet nations
- ☐ (D) aggressive military action taken against the Soviet Union

BACK

NEXT

Questions 36 through 39 refer to the following.

“...Russian rulers have invariably sensed that their rule was relatively archaic in form, fragile and artificial in its psychological foundation, unable to stand comparison or contact with political systems of Western countries. For this reason they have always feared foreign penetration, feared direct contact between Western world and their own, feared what would happen if Russians learned truth about world without or if foreigners learned truth about world within. And they have learned to seek security only in patient but deadly struggle for total destruction of rival power, never in compacts and compromises with it.”

Source: George Kennan, Telegram to the State Department, 1946

39

Mark for Review

Which of the following represents a major change in the foreign policy described in the excerpt after 1945?

(A) American efforts to support regime change in Cuba

(B) Ramping up of American military involvement in Vietnam

(C) American recognition of the government of the People's Republic of China

(D) The American boycott of the 1980 Moscow Olympics

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 40 through 42 refer to the following.

“And certainly, certainly, this is the glory of America, with all of its faults. This is the glory of our democracy. If we were incarcerated behind the iron curtains of a Communistic nation we couldn’t do this. If we were dropped in the dungeon of a totalitarian regime we couldn’t do this. But the great glory of American democracy is the right to protest for right. My friends, don’t let anybody make us feel that we are to be compared in our actions with the Ku Klux Klan or with the White Citizens Council. There will be no crosses burned at any bus stops in Montgomery.”

Source: Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., The Montgomery Bus Boycott Speech, 1955

40

 Mark for Review

Martin Luther King references “the iron curtains of a Communistic nation” in order to

☐

(A) highlight the importance of the fight against Communism

☐

(B) reference a nation that models the ideals King espouses

☐

(C) draw a contrast between how the United States and the Soviet Union afford civil liberties

☐

(D) point out the flaws of American democracy

Questions 40 through 42 refer to the following.

“And certainly, certainly, this is the glory of America, with all of its faults. This is the glory of our democracy. If we were incarcerated behind the iron curtains of a Communistic nation we couldn’t do this. If we were dropped in the dungeon of a totalitarian regime we couldn’t do this. But the great glory of American democracy is the right to protest for right. My friends, don’t let anybody make us feel that we are to be compared in our actions with the Ku Klux Klan or with the White Citizens Council. There will be no crosses burned at any bus stops in Montgomery.”

Source: Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., The Montgomery Bus Boycott Speech, 1955

41

Mark for Review

The excerpt best reflects which of the following about the Civil Rights Movement after 1945?

(A) Its reliance on legal challenges and court litigation to challenge segregation

(B) Its commitment to nonviolent protest tactics

(C) Its emphasis on economic equality as a major goal

(D) Its ties to broader youth movements critical of the conformity of the era

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 40 through 42 refer to the following.

“And certainly, certainly, this is the glory of America, with all of its faults. This is the glory of our democracy. If we were incarcerated behind the iron curtains of a Communistic nation we couldn’t do this. If we were dropped in the dungeon of a totalitarian regime we couldn’t do this. But the great glory of American democracy is the right to protest for right. My friends, don’t let anybody make us feel that we are to be compared in our actions with the Ku Klux Klan or with the White Citizens Council. There will be no crosses burned at any bus stops in Montgomery.”

Source: Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., The Montgomery Bus Boycott Speech, 1955

42

Mark for Review

The source’s point of view on freedom of speech is most consistent with which of the following?

(A) The passage of the Alien and Sedition Acts

(B) World War I Supreme Court decisions such as Schenck v. United States

(C) Federal policies toward organized labor unions in the 1920s

(D) President Franklin Roosevelt’s support of the “Four Freedoms”

BACK

NEXT

Questions 43 through 45 refer to the following.

“If I am right, the problem that has no name stirring in the minds of so many American women today is not a matter of loss of femininity or too much education, or the demands of domesticity. It is far more important than anyone recognizes. It is the key to these other new and old problems which have been torturing women and their husbands and children, and puzzling their doctors and educators for years. It may well be the key to our future as a nation and a culture. We can no longer ignore that voice within women that says: ‘I want something more than my husband and my children and my home.’”

Source: Betty Friedan, The Feminine Mystique, 1963

43

Mark for Review

Which of the following primary sources would most likely support Friedan’s argument in the passage?

(A) Marriage records from the middle of the twentieth century

(B) Diary entries of housewives with references to their ambitions

(C) Data showing the true costs of the demands of domesticity

(D) Speeches by early twentieth-century suffragettes

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 43 through 45 refer to the following.

“If I am right, the problem that has no name stirring in the minds of so many American women today is not a matter of loss of femininity or too much education, or the demands of domesticity. It is far more important than anyone recognizes. It is the key to these other new and old problems which have been torturing women and their husbands and children, and puzzling their doctors and educators for years. It may well be the key to our future as a nation and a culture. We can no longer ignore that voice within women that says: ‘I want something more than my husband and my children and my home.’”

Source: Betty Friedan, The Feminine Mystique, 1963

44

Mark for Review

Supporters of the point of view expressed in the passage most directly influenced which of the following?

☐

(A) A feminist movement that advocated changes in sexual norms

☐

(B) The adoption of an amendment to the Constitution guaranteeing gender equality

☐

(C) Federal congressional legislation protecting the right to abortion

☐

(D) Reductions in the number of women entering the workforce

BACK

NEXT

Questions 43 through 45 refer to the following.

“If I am right, the problem that has no name stirring in the minds of so many American women today is not a matter of loss of femininity or too much education, or the demands of domesticity. It is far more important than anyone recognizes. It is the key to these other new and old problems which have been torturing women and their husbands and children, and puzzling their doctors and educators for years. It may well be the key to our future as a nation and a culture. We can no longer ignore that voice within women that says: ‘I want something more than my husband and my children and my home.’”

Source: Betty Friedan, The Feminine Mystique, 1963

45

Mark for Review

The historical situation described by the author was most challenged by all of the following before 1945 EXCEPT?

(A) The emergence of the cult of domesticity in the wake of the Market Revolution.

(B) The organization of the temperance movement in the late 1800s.

(C) The concept of the “New Woman” in the 1920s.

(D) The status of women’s employment during the Second World War.

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 46 through 47 refer to the following.

“The right of citizens of the United States to vote in any primary or other election for President or Vice President, for electors for President or Vice President, or for Senator or Representative in Congress, shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State by reason of failure to pay any poll tax or other tax.”

Source: Twenty-fourth Amendment to the Constitution, 1964

46

 Mark for Review

Which of the following describes the most likely purpose of the source shown?

- ☐

(A)

 To fulfill Reconstruction-era promises on civil rights
- ☐

(B)

 To reform the relationship between the federal government and the states
- ☐

(C)

 To expand the electoral franchise to non-property-owners
- ☐

(D)

 To reduce the influence of southern states in presidential elections

Questions 46 through 47 refer to the following.

“The right of citizens of the United States to vote in any primary or other election for President or Vice President, for electors for President or Vice President, or for Senator or Representative in Congress, shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or any State by reason of failure to pay any poll tax or other tax.”

Source: Twenty-fourth Amendment to the Constitution, 1964

47

Mark for Review

Policies such as the ones that this amendment refers to were largely adopted in reaction to which of the following?

☐

(A) Guarantees for the right to vote regardless of sex

☐

(B) The outlawing of slavery

☐

(C) The end of indirect election of senators

☐

(D) Lowering of the voting age to 18 years of age

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 48 through 51 refer to the following.

“The economic ills we suffer have come upon us over several decades. They will not go away in days, weeks, or months, but they will go away. They will go away because we as Americans have the capacity now, as we’ve had in the past, to do whatever needs to be done to preserve this last and greatest bastion of freedom.

“In this present crisis, government is not the solution to our problem; government is the problem. From time to time we’ve been tempted to believe that society has become too complex to be managed by self-rule, that government by an elite group is superior to government for, by, and of the people. Well, if no one among us is capable of governing himself, then who among us has the capacity to govern someone else? All of us together, in and out of government, must bear the burden. The solutions we seek must be equitable, with no one group singled out to pay a higher price.”

Source: President Ronald Reagan, First Inaugural Address, 1981

48

 Mark for Review

Based on the excerpt, the author would most likely oppose federal policies from all of the following decades EXCEPT

- ☐

A

 The 1900s
- ☐

B

 The 1920s
- ☐

C

 The 1930s
- ☐

D

 The 1960s

Questions 48 through 51 refer to the following.

“The economic ills we suffer have come upon us over several decades. They will not go away in days, weeks, or months, but they will go away. They will go away because we as Americans have the capacity now, as we’ve had in the past, to do whatever needs to be done to preserve this last and greatest bastion of freedom.

“In this present crisis, government is not the solution to our problem; government is the problem. From time to time we’ve been tempted to believe that society has become too complex to be managed by self-rule, that government by an elite group is superior to government for, by, and of the people. Well, if no one among us is capable of governing himself, then who among us has the capacity to govern someone else? All of us together, in and out of government, must bear the burden. The solutions we seek must be equitable, with no one group singled out to pay a higher price.”

Source: President Ronald Reagan, First Inaugural Address, 1981

49

Mark for Review

Which of the following groups would be most likely to oppose the message articulated by the author in the excerpt?

(A) An evangelical Christian

(B) A high-income voter

(C) An aggressive supporter of Containment policy

(D) A civil rights activist

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 48 through 51 refer to the following.

“The economic ills we suffer have come upon us over several decades. They will not go away in days, weeks, or months, but they will go away. They will go away because we as Americans have the capacity now, as we’ve had in the past, to do whatever needs to be done to preserve this last and greatest bastion of freedom.

“In this present crisis, government is not the solution to our problem; government is the problem. From time to time we’ve been tempted to believe that society has become too complex to be managed by self-rule, that government by an elite group is superior to government for, by, and of the people. Well, if no one among us is capable of governing himself, then who among us has the capacity to govern someone else? All of us together, in and out of government, must bear the burden. The solutions we seek must be equitable, with no one group singled out to pay a higher price.”

Source: President Ronald Reagan, First Inaugural Address, 1981

50

Mark for Review

The “economic ills” that the author refers to in the first paragraph are most likely in reference to which of the following?

(A) A prolonged period of recession and high unemployment

(B) High economic inflation and low economic growth

(C) A major decline in revenues from the oil market

(D) Marked increases in the federal deficit

BACK

NEXT

Questions 48 through 51 refer to the following.

“The economic ills we suffer have come upon us over several decades. They will not go away in days, weeks, or months, but they will go away. They will go away because we as Americans have the capacity now, as we’ve had in the past, to do whatever needs to be done to preserve this last and greatest bastion of freedom.

“In this present crisis, government is not the solution to our problem; government is the problem. From time to time we’ve been tempted to believe that society has become too complex to be managed by self-rule, that government by an elite group is superior to government for, by, and of the people. Well, if no one among us is capable of governing himself, then who among us has the capacity to govern someone else? All of us together, in and out of government, must bear the burden. The solutions we seek must be equitable, with no one group singled out to pay a higher price.”

Source: President Ronald Reagan, First Inaugural Address, 1981

51

Mark for Review

Which of the following after 1980 would most challenge the proposal supported by the author in the passage?

(A) Reductions in marginal income tax rates

(B) Increases in federal spending on the defense budget

(C) Greater state control over administration of welfare programs

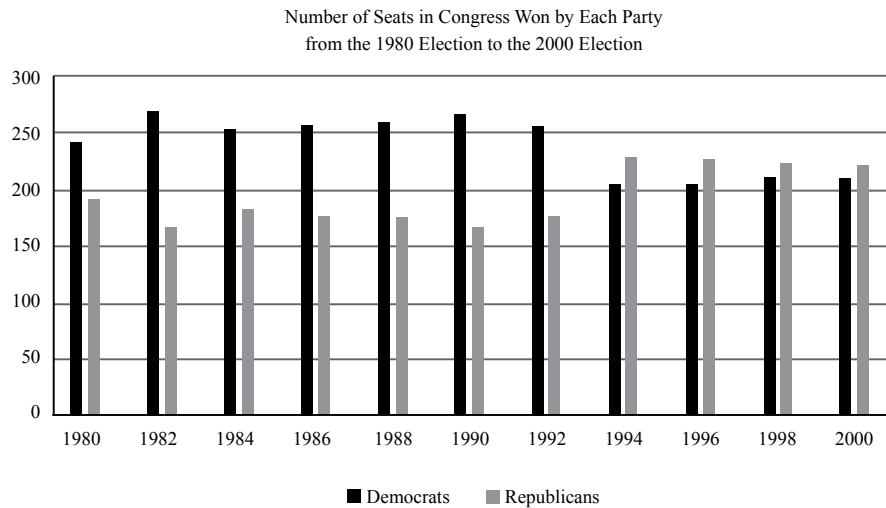

(D) Deregulation of American industries such as energy and telecommunications

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 52 through 55 refer to the following.

52 Mark for Review

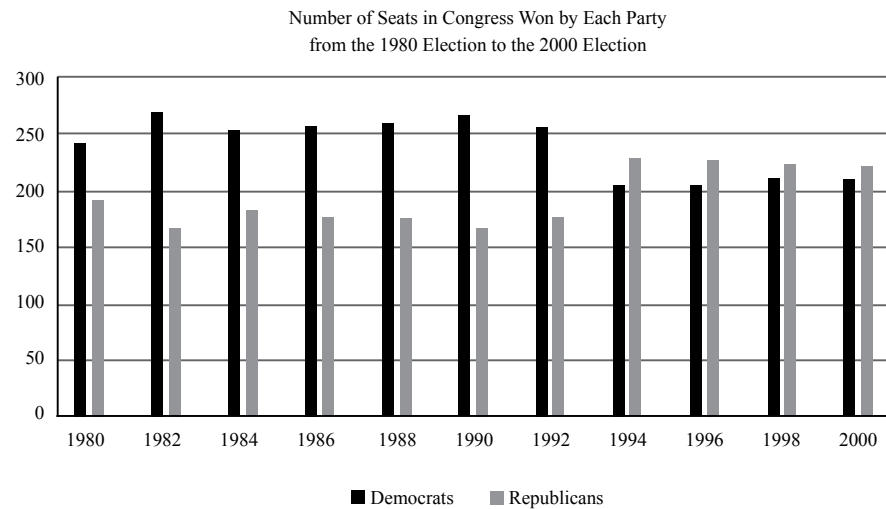

Which of the following conclusions is most directly supported by the overall trend depicted in the graph?

- ☐ (A) For the most part, the party of the presidential election winner gained a majority of the seats in Congress.
- ☐ (B) In Congressional elections, the American electorate tended to favor the party that opposed the president.
- ☐ (C) Republican congressional dominance continued through much of the late 20th century.
- ☐ (D) The Contract with America allowed the Democrats to maintain power.

BACK

NEXT

Questions 52 through 55 refer to the following.

53

Mark for Review

The trend in the graph most directly contributed to which of the following developments after 2000?

(A) sustained budgetary surplus and major reductions to the federal deficit

(B) Revitalization of America's manufacturing industries

(C) Increased political polarization in federal elections

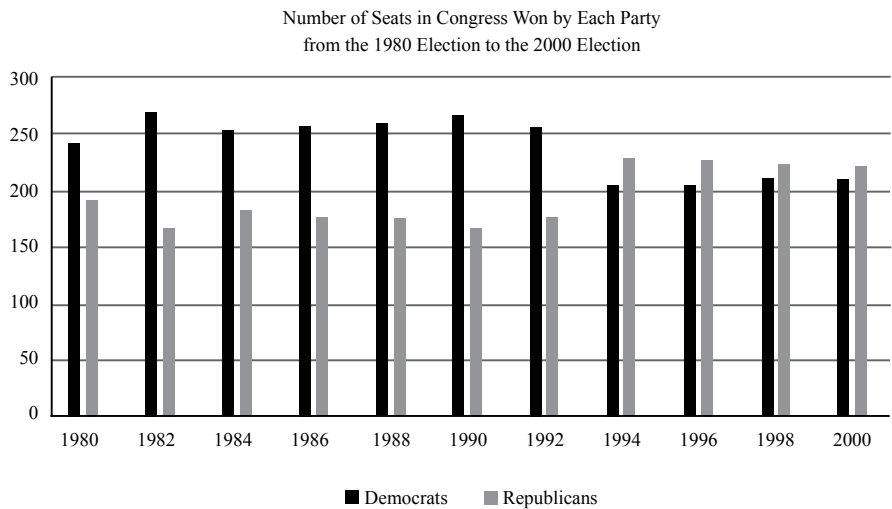

(D) A wave of bipartisan cooperation in Congress

BACKNEXT

Section I: Multiple Choice

Questions 52 through 55 refer to the following.

54 Mark for Review

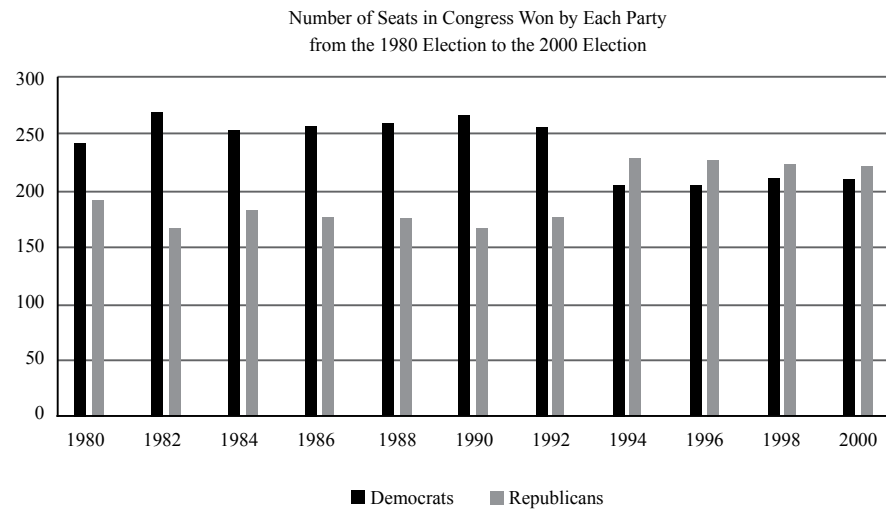

Congressional Republicans in the time period illustrated on the graph would likely support all of the following EXCEPT

- ☐ (A) A reduction in the size and scope of federal welfare programs
- ☐ (B) Increased tariffs to protect American industries from foreign competition
- ☐ (C) Restrictions on abortion rights
- ☐ (D) Reduced marginal income tax rates

BACK

NEXT

Questions 52 through 55 refer to the following.

55

Mark for Review

Members of Congress from the parties shown in the graph would most likely agree on which of the following after 2000?

- ☐ (A) The need for the United States to play a strong global role in fighting terrorism.
- ☐ (B) Policies to reduce carbon emissions and dependence on fossil fuels.
- ☐ (C) Liberalization of America's immigration system.
- ☐ (D) Federal programs to support gender and racial diversity.

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Short Answer

SECTION I, PART B: Short Answer

At a Glance

Time
40 minutes

Number of Questions
3

Percent of Total Score
20%

Questions 1 and 2
Mandatory

Question 3 or 4
Choose one question

Instructions

Section I, Part B has 3 short-answer questions and lasts 40 minutes.

In this part, answer Question 1 and Question 2 and either Question 3 or Question 4.

In your responses, be sure to address all parts of the questions you answer. Use complete sentences; an outline or bulleted list alone is not acceptable.

You may pace yourself as you answer the questions in this part, or you may use these optional timing recommendations:

It is suggested that you spend an equal amount of time, approximately 13 minutes, on each question.

For this practice test, use scratch paper for notes and planning as well as writing your responses.

BACK

NEXT

Question 1 refers to the following.

Source 1

“I believe, Your Honor, in common with all Socialists, that this nation ought to own and control its own industries. I believe, as all Socialists do, that all things that are jointly needed and used ought to be jointly owned that industry, the basis of our social life, instead of being the private property of a few and operated for their enrichment, ought to be the common property of all, democratically administered in the interest of all.

“I am opposing a social order in which it is possible for one man who does absolutely nothing that is useful to amass a fortune of hundreds of millions of dollars, while millions of men and women who work all the days of their lives secure barely enough for a wretched existence.”

Source: Eugene Debs, Statement to the Court, 1918

Source 2

“Upon these two basic certainties, first that the “Reds” were criminal aliens and secondly that the American Government must prevent crime, it was decided that there could be no nice distinctions drawn between the theoretical ideals of the radicals and their actual violations of our national laws. An assassin may have brilliant intellectuality, he may be able to excuse his murder or robbery with fine oratory, but any theory which excuses crime is not wanted in America. This is no place for the criminal to flourish, nor will he do so so long as the rights of common citizenship can be exerted to prevent him.”

Source: A. Mitchell Palmer, “The Case Against the ‘Reds,’” 1920

1

Mark for Review

Using the excerpts, respond to parts A, B, and C.

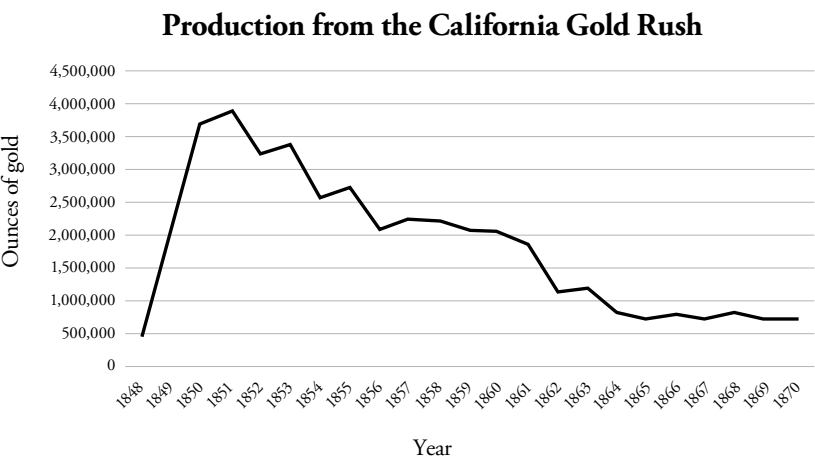

- A. Briefly explain the impact that World War I had on both of these perspectives.
- B. Briefly explain how ONE historical event or development prior to Debs’s statement could be used to support his assertion about industry.
- C. Briefly explain how ONE historical event or development prior to Palmer’s statement could be used to support his assertion about radicals.

BACK

NEXT

Section I: Short Answer

Question 2 is based on the following.

2 Mark for Review

Using the figure, respond to parts A, B, and C.

- A. Briefly explain ONE way in which the Gold Rush transformed the West.
- B. Briefly explain one way in which the Gold Rush impacted the development of the United States.
- C. Briefly explain a SECOND economic boom in American history and how it impacted a particular region of the United States.

BACK

NEXT

Question 3 or 4

Directions: Answer either Question 3 or Question 4.

3

Mark for Review

With regard to William Lloyd Garrison, Frederick Douglass, and Harriet Beecher Stowe, respond to parts A, B, and C.

- A. Briefly explain which of the three people had the largest impact on the abolition of slavery.
- B. Briefly explain why the other two people did not play as large of a role in abolishing slavery, making sure to explain their roles in the abolition movement.
- C. Briefly explain how one other person or group helped to abolish slavery.

4

Mark for Review

Respond to parts A, B, and C.

- A. Briefly explain ONE reason for the emergence of the Populist movement during the final decades of the nineteenth century.
- B. Briefly explain one example of how the goals of the Populist movement were challenged during the same time period.
- C. Briefly explain one way that the Populist movement impacted the United States in the years following its prominence.

Choose a question to answer before you start typing. If you change your selection, any work you've done will be saved.

☐

Answer Question 3

☐

Answer Question 4

BACKNEXT

Section II: Free Response

AP[®] United States History Exam

SECTION II: Free Response

At a Glance

Total Time

1 hour, 40 minutes

Number of Questions

2

Percent of Total Score

40%

Question 1 (DBQ):Mandatory*Suggested Reading and*Writing Time

60 minutes

Percent of Total Score

25%

Question 2, 3, or 4 (Long Essay): Choose ONE
Question

Answer either Question
2, 3, or 4

Suggested Time

40 minutes

Percent of Total Score

15%

DISCLAIMER: The official AP U.S. History Exam will be digital. Instructions for the official exam may differ from this practice test.

Instructions

Section II has 1 document-based question (DBQ) and 1 long essay question, and lasts 1 hour and 40 minutes.

In this section, answer Question 1 (the DBQ) and either Question 2 or Question 3 or Question 4. After reviewing Questions 2, 3, and 4, choose the question that you are best prepared to answer. This section of the exam requires answers in essay form. Use complete sentences; an outline or bulleted list alone is not acceptable.

You may pace yourself as you answer the questions in this section, or you may use these optional timing recommendations:

For Question 1 (DBQ), it is suggested that you spend approximately 15 minutes reading the question and planning your answer, and then 45 minutes writing your essay. The suggested writing time for the long essay question is 40 minutes.

For this practice test, use scratch paper for notes and planning as well as writing your responses.

BACKNEXT

Document 1

Source: The Declaration of Independence, Thomas Jefferson, et. al., 1776

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

1

Mark for Review

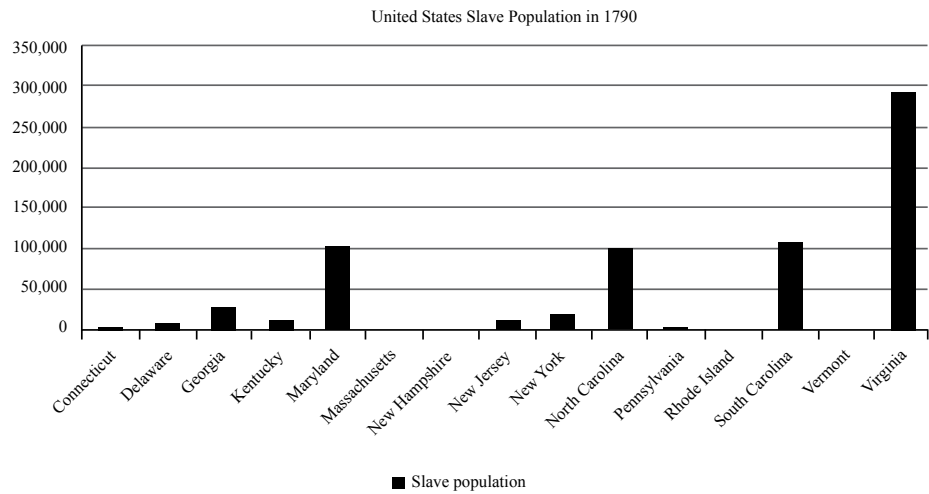

Evaluate the extent to which the Constitution led to political change in the United States from 1760 to 1800.

BACK

NEXT

Section II: Free Response

Document 2

BACK

NEXT

Document 3

Source: James Madison, Federalist #63, 1788

Thus far I have considered the circumstances which point out the necessity of a well-constructed Senate only as they relate to the representatives of the people. To a people as little blinded by prejudice or corrupted by flattery as those whom I address, I shall not scruple to add, that such an institution may be sometimes necessary as a defense to the people against their own temporary errors and delusions.

BACK

NEXT

Section II: Free Response

Document 4

United States Population in 1790

Northern States		Southern States
Connecticut	237,255	Delaware	59,096
Massachusetts	378,566	Georgia	82,548
New Hampshire	141,889	Kentucky	73,667
New Jersey	184,139	Maryland	319,728
New York	340,241	North Carolina	395,005
Pennsylvania	443,611	South Carolina	249,073
Rhode Island	69,112	Virginia	747,550

BACK

NEXT

Document 5

Source: George Mason, Virginia Journal, September, 1787

In the House of Representatives there is not the substance but the shadow only of representation; which can never produce proper information in the legislature, or inspire confidence in the people; the laws will therefore be generally made by men little concerned in, and unacquainted with their effects and consequences.

BACK

NEXT

Section II: Free Response

Document 6

Source: Alexander Hamilton, Speech at the Philadelphia Convention, 1787

All communities divide themselves into the few and the many. The first are the rich and wellborn, the other the mass of the people....The people are turbulent and changing; they seldom judge or determine right. Give therefore to the first class a distinct, permanent share in the government. They will check the unsteadiness of the second, and as they cannot receive any advantage by change, they therefore will ever maintain good government.

BACK

NEXT

Document 7

Source: Thomas Jefferson, Letter to Francis Hopkinson, 1789

What I disapproved from the first moment, also, was the want of a bill of rights to guard liberty against the legislative as well as the executive branches of the government; that is to say, to secure freedom in religion, freedom of the press, freedom from monopolies, freedom from unlawful imprisonment, freedom from a permanent military, and a trial by jury, in all cases determinable by the laws of the land. I disapproved, also, the perpetual reeligibility of the President. To these points of disapprobation I adhere.

BACKNEXT

Section II: Free Response

Question 2, 3, or 4 (Long Essay)

Suggested writing time: 40 minutes

Directions: Answer Question 2 or Question 3 or Question 4.

In your response you should do the following.

- Respond to the prompt with a historically defensible thesis or claim that establishes a line of reasoning.
- Describe a broader historical context relevant to the prompt.
- Support an argument in response to the prompt using specific and relevant examples of evidence.
- Use historical reasoning (e.g., comparison, causation, continuity or change over time) to frame or structure an argument that addresses the prompt.
- Use evidence to corroborate, qualify, or modify an argument that addresses the prompt.

2 Mark for Review

Evaluate the extent to which British Parliamentary policies led to the American Revolution between 1754 and 1800.

In your argument, analyze both changes and continuities in the relevant time period.

3 Mark for Review

Evaluate the extent to which immigration fostered cultural change in America between 1820 and 1920.

In the development of your argument, explain the reasons for the similarities and differences.

4 Mark for Review

Evaluate the extent to which federal Reconstruction policies created political change in America between 1860 and 1900.

In the development of your argument, explain the reasons for the similarities and differences.

BACK

NEXT

Choose a question to answer before you start typing. If you change your selection, any work you've done will be saved.

- ☐ Answer Question 2
- ☐ Answer Question 3
- ☐ Answer Question 4

END OF EXAM

Copyright © 2026 by TPR Education IP Holdings, LLC. All rights reserved.

BACK